JEANS CORNER

The weather is sooooo nice. Now this is why we live here. The only thing I truly miss is the leaves changing. All the fall hallmark movies show small towns and fall colored leaves. Could I plant a tree that would change color to red orange and green? Looks like I need to check that out. Now back to business. As always we had a great showing of kids for our Halloween Party. What a wonderful job we do. But on to November. My husband is from the south so that means cornbread dressing. My kids said they did not care for it, but the dressing was always gone. Hmmmmmmm. Now they make sure I am making it. Our grand daughter and two great grand children stopped by, on their way to San Diego. Their daddy is in the Navy and they will be stationed there for 5 years. A lot closer to go see them than Florida. And you cannot beat the weather. Have a great turkey day. And remember, GOBBLE TIL YOU WOBBLE.

CHURCH ON THE HILL

by Pastor Fred French

'Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.' John 14:6

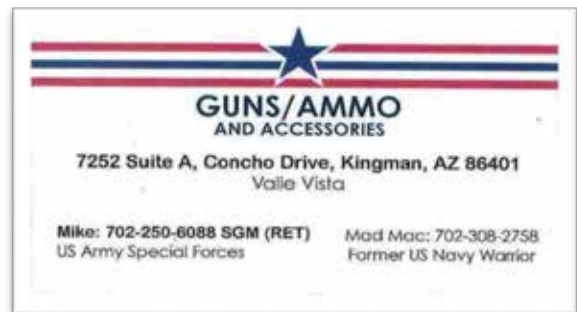

'The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective.' James 5:16

I came across an interesting story worth the telling. During the reign of Abdullah the Third, a great drought struck Baghdad. The Mohammedan doctors issued a decree that all the faithful should offer prayer for rain. Still the drought continued.

The Jews were then permitted to add their prayers. Their prayers also appeared ineffectual. Finally when the drought resulted in widespread famine, the Christians in the land were asked to pray. It also happened that torrents of rain followed almost immediately.

The whole council was more upset over the cessation of the drought than it had been alarmed at its continuance. Feeling that some explanation was necessary, they issued this statement to the masses: The God of our Prophet was highly gratified by the prayers of the faithful which were as sweet-smelling savors to Him. He refused their requests in order to prolong the pleasure of listening to their prayers; but the prayers of those Christian infidels were an abomination to Him, and He granted their petitions the sooner to be rid of their annoying persistence.'

A better explanation: Answers to prayer depend on who is praying and Who is listening.

Library News

by Diane Druian

Mohave County Libraries and Bookmobile

Services will be closed on Monday November 11, 2019 for the Veterans Day Holiday. Normal hours of operation will resume Tuesday November 12, 2019.

The libraries and bookmobile services will close again on Thursday November 28, 2019 for the Thanksgiving Day Holiday. Normal hours of operation will resume Friday, November 29, 2019.

Come join us to craft Flower Fairy Dolls on Thursday, November 14th at 3 p.m. We are moving up the time to start our craft in order to provide more time for cleanup afterwards. Designed by artist Salley Mavor, these clever little dolls are made with pipe cleaners (a.k.a. chenille stems), embroidery floss, wooden beads, roving (for hair) and artificial flowers with a little bit of felt for clothing. All these materials will be provided courtesy of library friends along with glue and markers to create the Fairy's facial features. Participants will have a charming project to take home. Salley Mavor has a website, tutorials on You Tube, a Facebook page, and a blog if you would like to check out her work.

Also on Thursday, November 14th the Friends of Valle Vista Library will be meeting at 6 p.m.

The Friends of Valle Vista Library thank all our volunteers and customers for a successful Fall Book and Bake Sale last month. It was a day of beautiful weather and many people took advantage of the opportunity to hunt down some good reading materials and music and delicious baked treats.

Please watch the sign in front of the library for announcements of events that may be planned after the press date for the newsletter.

Don't get swallowed up in the holiday rush. Take a break and come to the library. We hope we see you there in November.

Community Events Committee

Community Events

November 2019

The 9th annual Valle Vista Craft Show brought out 61 vendors to show and sell their talents. We made $48 on pizzas. Thanks, Mark for manning the pizza oven. The volunteers at the front door sold $262 in raffle tickets. Volunteers were also able to adopt out 6 animals for the animal rescue group. The pizza and raffle money is being put into our donation fund.

Along with the cool weather came Halloween. I hope everyone had a fun filled Happy Halloween and enough candy to last until Christmas.

The Holiday season has started. The Community Events Committee would like to be the first to wish you and yours a Happy Thanksgiving.

The Christmas Light Parade will be December 14th. As always we will line up at the Fire Station at 5.00pm. Please start thinking about what you are going to decorate and enter in the parade. After the parade there will be treats in the club house. Along with the treats you will have a chance to sit on Santa's lap and tell him what you would like for Christmas.

Our next meeting is November 13 at 7:00pm. You're all welcome.

Dirtinators

We are a Jeep club and we are located here in Valle Vista. There is a meeting every Tuesday. Our first meeting of the month will be held in Kingman at 225 E Oak Street, and the rest of the month, the meeting will be at the Valle Vista Clubhouse. All of our meetings start at 7PM. It is an open meeting and all are welcome to attend. If you are interested in joining our group, we do have a few requirements.

- > Have access to a 4x4 vehicle with appropriate tires.
- > Attend the meetings as often as you can.
- > Leave the drama at home and be prepared to have fun.

We try to go on rides every week. We are not rock crawlers and don't want to break our rigs. Typically we bring our lunch and stop somewhere (usually scenic) and relax for awhile. There are some very cool and beautiful sights to see out there and with a group of friends. What better way is there to enjoy them? Hope to see you at the next meeting! We are very safety minded.
